Ok, I'll be there. Yeah, I'll leave at noon as well.

Do I have to be there exactly at 9, or a few mins late is ok? I'm trying to decide whether I can drop off my son at his school at 8:30 (our normal routine) or if my wife leave later than normal and drop him off. The place looks like it is just 15 mins away from the school, so with some luck I should be able to get there by 9.

The boat is nice and big, you can bring laptop and work. I plan to be out there until noon (but maybe bring lunch) Jason will be out coring so he would not be processing cores tomorrow.
